

Campus-Only Access ETD Form

Request for campus-only access for your thesis, dissertation, or problem report (ETD)

From the West Virginia University Electronic Thesis and Dissertation Access Policy

The student, with the written approval of the student's advisor, may select campus-only access for their ETD. The ETD will be freely available to the WVU community (current students, staff, and faculty) via login and can be requested through Interlibrary Loan. A student may not select this status in lieu of obtaining appropriate copyright permissions as theses and dissertations are intended to be a public record of examination documents. Students can remove the campus-only restriction at any time.

Campus-only access addresses situations such as when a book or article is planned, and the book or journal publisher is concerned that prior publishing through a digital library will negatively impact on sales.
